

Samuel Grosse

(803) 629-0026 | Anchorage, AK 99504 | linkedin.com/in/samgrosse112 | samdgrosse@gmail.com

Education

Clemson University, Clemson, SC
Bachelor of Science in Management, Minor in Military Leadership

2010-2014

Experience: United States Army Officer

Battalion Fire Support Officer

Fort Richardson, AK

May 2020-Present

Develops, mentors, and evaluates training for seven junior officers and seven non-commissioned officers. Plans for and coordinates for available assets across multiple entities, echelons, and organizations, acts as a liaison between personnel and upper management.

- Led team through project life cycle of high-pressure group level exercise in interior Alaska, resulting in meeting all organizational goals while maintaining positive attitude during adversity
- Utilized expertise and domain knowledge to establish and consolidate organizational knowledge management system, resulting in gained efficiencies and shared understanding throughout the agency

Operations Officer

Fort Richardson, AK

January 2019-May 2020

Managed day to day training resources of over 500 personnel. Responsible for developing, synchronizing, scheduling, monitoring, and valuating training and projects; produced all directives and training guidance for two group level exercises in Louisiana and Mississippi.

- Authored 18 organizational directives and formalized the organizational playbook for airborne operations; streamlining the publication process and allowing subordinate organizations to operate more efficiently
- Competitively selected for a career level course from Jan-Aug 2019. Enhanced and refined critical thinking, adaptive and flexible leadership, problem solving, operations planning, asset synchronization, and teamwork skills; graduated in the top 10%, recognized for superior written communication.

Battalion Ammunition Officer

Fort Hood, TX

August 2018- January 2019

Responsible for managing, maintaining, supervising, ordering, and accounting for ammunition.

- Forecasted and ordered ammunition in conjunction with training; coordinated logistical ammunition movements for all training events, resulting in successful completion of over 20 training events.
- Managed $41.8M worth of ammunition supporting 20 training events where 350 Soldiers received real-world training preparing them for deployment in support of world-wide contingency operations.

Assistant Manager

Fort Hood, TX

February 2018-August 2018

Second in command of 90-person organization; supervised all maintenance, supply, and logistics operations.

- Maintained an equipment operational readiness rate of over 95%, resulting in unit being chosen for national level exercise above peers
- Anticipated logistics requirements and generated solid courses of action which prepared the unit for national level exercise, earning recognition from higher headquarters

Department Leader

Camp Hovey, Republic of Korea

February 2017-February 2018

Directly responsible for health, welfare, and training of 38 personnel; overall manager of personnel's training schedule, equipment maintenance, and safety

- Planned, resourced, and led unit through rigorous training cycle with international partners, eventuating in successful industry qualification
- Maintained 100% accountability of 14 vehicles and associated equipment valued in excess of $10 million

Troop Fire Support Officer

Fort Hood, TX

February 2016- February 2017

Managed three-person team that advised the senior manager of a 80 personnel organization on how best to employ available assets during training

- Created and administered innovative phased milestone-based preparation training for certification testing, concluding in all team members' successful certification
- Adeptly advised senior manager through multiple group level exercises, resulting in increased efficiency in operations and reduced risk

Logistics Officer

Fort Hood, TX

June 2015- February 2016

Responsible for developing logistical policy, maintaining accountability for operation and maintenance funds for all organizational property valued in excess of $500 million

- Coordinated supply activities with organizational leadership and supporting services, created recommendations and generated solutions that consolidated supply procedures and directives resulting in effective turn-ins of obsolete equipment
- Provided and sustained resilience training to the organization, communicated effectively, expertly, and persuasively, trained supervisory level leaders to incorporate resilience skills and techniques into professional and developmental counseling resulting in 100% compliance for annual training and 0 safety incidents

Skills

Microsoft Office, Leadership, Initiative, Reliability, Attention to Detail, Problem Solving, Time Management, Integrity